The several funds belonging to the town are loaned in part to individuals, and secured by good notes, and held in part by the town, as may be seen by the following :

Public Land Fund.
Loaned in full,		$69.00
Parsonage Fund.

	<hr/>	1,569.14
Whole amount of funds,		<hr/> $2,622.14

The condition of the Public Land, Parsonage and School Fund is the same as last year. The Literary Money is not a "Trust Fund," though nothing but the interest of it was expended by the town for years, while the principal was constantly increasing, by annual additions from the State Treasury, arising from tax on banks. For the last few years this fund has been decreasing, by distributions of not only the interest, but part of the principal, to the several School Districts, agreeably to vote of the town.

Your Committee find the accounts of the Selectmen well kept, and all payments and expenditures properly vouched.

All of which is respectfully submitted :
